

UNIQUE LIVING IN A CAFÉ LIFESTYLE ENVIRONMENT

The Foundry, Bourke Street

High profile city location...

Situated between Bourke and Lt Collins St in Melbourne (the old McEwans building), The Foundry was designed by acclaimed architects Fender Katsalidis, creators of Melbourne's iconic Eureka Tower.

The Foundry sets a new standard of living in the CBD with superbly designed apartments that fuse space and comfort with heritage charm and is symbolic in urban design featuring cutting edge design, heritage features, high ceiling spaces with natural light and convenient layout.

The result – living in cutting-edge simplicity and style. Each apartment is perfected with quality finishes and quietly nestled in the heart of the buzz of Melbourne's city streets.

With the Bourke Street Mall and the heritage GPO just down the street, shopping in Melbourne is nothing short of immediate.

Just across your doorstep is Hardware Lane, soak up the European-inspired environment sipping on a coffee or a romantic night dining with the sounds of live jazz echoing off the laneway.
